On the next day you are off to Rainbow Beach for some rest and relaxation for two days. After this break you will be taken to a ranching farm and go through some fun yet intensive training for 5 days.

Accommodation

Your first night will be spent in a hostel in Brisbane You will be in shared accommodation, with en-suites, TV, fridge, balcony and swipe card access. The hostel also offers many facilities including a pool, spa, sauna, tennis court, and a licensed bar where food is available.

The next two nights will be at a hostel in Rainbow Beach. You will have time to adjust to your new beautiful environment in the Land Down Under! After the training program, you will have the option to travel around Australia or start your new job!

Food and accommodation is almost always included with the job. If it is not included, you will receive a higher than average salary to cover these extra costs.

Orientation & Training

The typical schedule for your arrival orientation and training includes:

Thursday:

Arrive at Brisbane airport in the morning where you'll be met and taken to Brisbane Backpackers Resort hostel to relax and catch up on sleep.

Our Aussie representative will take you to the Department of Immigration so you can get your Electronic Visa changed to a proper (paper) visa in your passport before going to Rainbow Beach.. They will also take you to the bank to open a bank account. This will enable your employer to deposit your wages. You will also be taken to the Medicare Office for your Reciprocal Health Care Card (which we hope you will never have to use).

Friday-Sunday:

You will be given an included bus ticket to Rainbow Beach for three days of jet lag recovery. The resort is close to Fraser Island, the world's largest sand island and boasts some spectacular scenery. The friendly staff at the hostel can arrange 4x4 trips to Fraser, horse riding on the beach, biking in the rain forest, surfing, boogie boarding and diving.

Monday:

Now, the moment you have been waiting for...to work and live in the Outback Australia! You will be given an included bus ticket from Rainbow beach to our training farm. You will arrive at the farm for lunch, and afterwards, there will be a short paperwork session. Then, you will be taken into the local town to do some shopping. This will be a great chance to purchase work clothes such as hats, boots, and shirts. For the remainder of the afternoon, you will get to try some motor-biking and possibly horse-riding around the farm.

Tuesday to Friday:

Your training will consist of, but not limited to, horse and cattle work, tractor, motorbike and quad work, fencing and masses of useful information getting you up to speed to become a real Aussie Jackaroo!

Throughout the training period you will be given details of perspective employers, receive job offers, and have help in preparing you for your new job. The job offers that you will receive will relate to your skills and experience and during the training your progress will be assessed to ensure you are placed into a suitable job. Rest assured though, with this program you do have the guarantee of a job offer by the last day of the training! On Friday morning, you will need to let the office know of your choice. They can then help prepare some briefing notes and travel tickets so you can get to your chosen place of work by the cheapest and most convenient means. On Saturday you will leave the ranch in the morning to travel to your job.

When can I go?

Pretty much when you want to... we have departures every month. The actual program starts every week on Thursday. Positions are limited, especially during holiday season in December/January, so allow plenty of time to book your place soon!
